Professional Staff Position Description Form

This form outlines the information that should be included in a position description. An accurate and up to date description of your position will enable the UW Compensation Office to evaluate your position and determine an appropriate payroll title and salary grade. It is important for you to give careful thought and consideration to all sections and to provide complete and precise information. The purpose of this outline is to find out what your job involves and is not intended to evaluate your performance in any way.

The Guide to Completing the Professional Staff Position Description Form has been developed to assist you in providing appropriate information in each of the sections. The guide is available on the web at:
