

UNIVERSITY of WASHINGTON | BOTHELL

University Housing 2009-2010

General Information

Beginning September 2009, the University of Washington Bothell will be offering student apartments near campus.

- Apartments are a short walk from campus
- Large, furnished one-bedroom, one bathroom units
- The building is co-ed; roommates will be of the same sex
- Close to shopping, restaurants, and bus lines
- Undergraduate community advisors on call 24 hours a day to respond to emergencies
- Bothell police and fire within a mile of the complex
- Student life programming specifically designed for the residential community

Housing will be available to currently enrolled (as of Autumn quarter 2009) University of Washington Bothell students who are 18 years of age or older. If you will be turning 18 during the 2009-10 academic year, you are eligible to live in University housing.

Monthly Rates* (pending approval by the Board of Regents in July)

Shared one-bedroom apartment, 12 month contract (September 26, 2009-September 17, 2010): $625

Single one-bedroom apartment, 12 month contract (September 26, 2009-September 17, 2010): $1100

*Rates are per person and include all utilities (water, electricity, basic cable, and internet) except phone service

Housing Timeline

Application priority deadline: July 15, 2009

- Housing will be assigned on a first-come, first-serve basis on the following priority order:
 - New students who live at least 30 miles from campus (including Whidbey Island)
 - All other new students
 - All continuing students

Both the application and a $50 application fee must be received for the application to be considered complete. After the priority deadline, applications will be accepted on a rolling basis.

- If you are offered housing, you will receive your assignment and housing contract by August 1.
- Mail your signed contract and a $500 security deposit back by August 17.
- If you are not offered housing, your application fee will be returned by September 1.
